

Michigan and Michigan Education are facing immense challenges . . .

the Network
Of Michigan Educators

*Improving Teaching and Learning
By Connecting Recognized Educators as a Resource to Inform Practice, Research, and Policy.*

2008 Annual Conference and Recognition Banquet

Connections for Action in Education:

Where Are We Going and What We Can Do!

December 4-5, 2008 at the Radisson Hotel, Lansing, Michigan

Building on the 100% satisfaction with the 2007 conference we are creating a conference of similar style and quality for 2008 !

Keynotes Include:

- Phil Power,
The Center For Michigan
- Mike Schmidt,
The Ford Motor Fund
- Mike Flanagan,
Superintendent of Public Instruction

The conference will begin with the framing of the issues by the Center For Michigan with the rest of the conference focusing on what NME members can do to contribute to solutions in their classrooms, schools, community, state, and country. There will be many sessions with practical “take home” value as well as time to share ideas, pedagogy, and strategies with your colleagues.

Breakouts

(Five sets of them- you asked for more!) will be provided by:

- The Center for Michigan
- The Ford Motor Fund (foundation)
 - NME members
- Michigan Virtual University
- The State Board of Education
- The MDE Office of Education Technology
 - MDE Legislative Directors
- The Academies of Science and Engineering (DC) Teacher Advisory Council
 - Thinkfinity

For details and links to registration go to www.nme-educators.org

